

Initial onboarding screen – user presented with message and sign-up/log-in prompt.

Spotify scanning – a loading bar depicts the current scanning status.

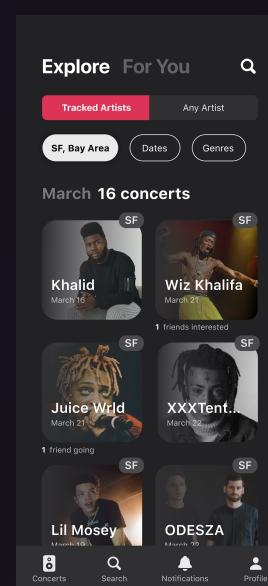

Scanning feedback – user can further curate the artists that were automatically tracked.

Enable notifications – user presented with message and CTA button for notifications.

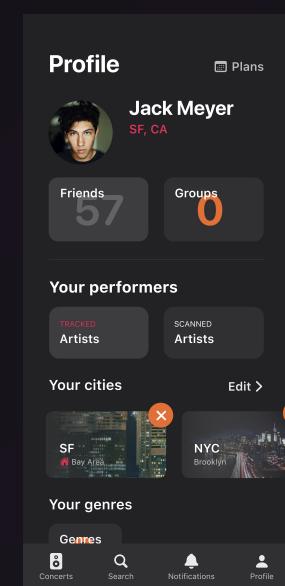

Add contacts – user prompted to import their contacts and friends.

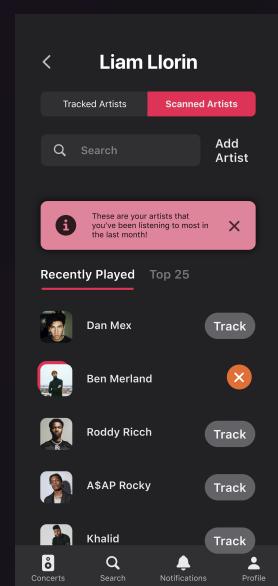

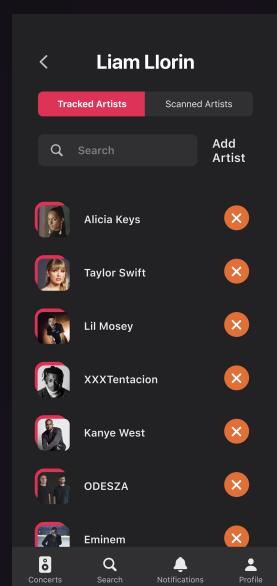

Track location – user encouraged to set their primary tracked location.

Initial concert feed – user arrives at main concert feed based on preferences.

Profile view – user presented with friends/groups UI and tracked preferences.

Tracked Artists – user can see which artists they are tracking and curate as necessary.

Scanned Artists – two sub-sub-tabs categorize user's scanned artists.